A signing ceremony took place in Kigali yesterday between Aleph Hospitality respectively, the international hospitality group Accor, and Century Park Hotel and Residences Ltd, the developers of the project.

Located in the pristine and calm hills of Nyarutarama, Kigali's most esteemed neighbourhood, Century Park Hotel and Residences is an all-in-one mixed-use residential and leisure park.

The destination offers luxury villas, two- and three-bedroom apartments, four- and five-bedroom duplexes and penthouses as well as three restaurants and bars. In addition, the development features the MGallery Hotel, the first for the brand in Rwanda, featuring appointed guest rooms and suites, leisure facilities including an outdoor pool as well as conferences and meeting rooms.

Billy Cheung, chairman of Century Park Hotel and Residences Ltd says: "We are delighted to formally launch our hotel and residences with agreements with two leading international organizations – Aleph Hospitality and Accor."

Bani Haddad, founder and managing director of Aleph Hospitality says: "We are very excited to be part of this incredible new mixed-use development in Kigali, which marks our first entry into Rwanda. We are delighted to be entrusted with the operations of the first MGallery hotel in Rwanda, our first Accor branded property, alongside the management of the facilities and restaurants at Century Park Hotel and Residences, including Billy's Bistro and Bar, which was voted 'Best Restaurant of the Year' in 2021 by the Consumers Choice Awards.

"We look forward to building on the success of the incredible food and beverage offerings of Century Park to make it the leading dining, lifestyle and nightlife destination in Kigali."
