Entitled, the LA Sport and Mozambique expo it will not only focus on tourism and travel, but will also include topical information relating to business opportunities. It includes live performances by Kurt Darren, Arno Jordaan, Dozi and Mwah.

"The expo brings all the opportunities and relevant information from the country of Mozambique to the consumers' doorstep. An opportunity to network, engage and source relevant information depending on your business or private objectives. There is a lot of energy in the country of Mozambique that covers a diverse range of sectors and we are confident that it will be the first of many successful events covering this topic," commented event director, Pierre Le Roux.

Entry fees are R40 for adults and R10 for children under the age of twelve.

There are limited exhibition spaces available for the expo. For more, go to www.mozambiqueshow.co.za.
