

Business is booming at both ends of the country for Marcus Brewster Publicity

The Gauteng office has contracted with a brace of clients in the hospitality industry. Bureau head Hein Kaiser has signed Du Gong Lodge, the exclusive private resort on the north coast of Mozambique, African/Asian/European fusion caterers Sika Lame and DeliOne, a designer bistro/deli/bakery in Sandton. The agency has also been re-signed by SA's top corporate law firm Bowman Gilfilan.

The Cape Town office has been appointed by SA jazz legend and composer Abdullah Ibrahim as well as Joanne Jowell, author of "Managing the Quarterlife Crisis". FHM, the biggest selling men's magazine in the country, has also extended their contract with the agency.
