Grapevine Communications has been appointed to manage the PR/communications for local office furniture manufacturing company, Angel Shack.

Angel Shack is a Proudly South African company that combines international expertise with state-of-the-art technology to produce cutting-edge, ergonomically designed office furniture locally, which is competitively priced.

Their design consultant, Stefan Brodbeck, is a Red Dot award-winning industrial designer based in Munich. His expertise and understanding of international markets has helped fast-track Angel Shack's expansion of their export division into Africa, Eastern and Western Europe and soon the Middle East.

Grapevine was selected due to their 18 years' experience in the PR and communications field, international affiliations, highly qualified team and their specialisation in media relations.
