

Nyarota wins Fellowship award

Zimbabwean journalist, Geoffrey Nyarota, who was sacked last month as editor of the Daily News for allegedly siding with workers who went on strike, has been awarded the Nieman Fellowship for journalism at Harvard University. While editor of the Daily News, Nyarota gained a reputation as a fearless critic of President Robert Mugabe's Zanu-PF government.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>