

Mediology South Africa names Michael Pearce and Carl Ungerer as joint managing partners

Mediology South Africa has named Michael Pearce and Carl Ungerer joint Managing Partners. After graduating from university, both Pearce and Ungerer joined Mediology, where both have flourished and grown in their respective roles. Having worked for Mediology for over ten years, they have earned the respect of their colleagues and clients alike.

Ungerer is a well-rounded media executive with a passion for digital channels, positioning him as one of the most prominent digital media experts in South Africa. His media solutions are tailored to the needs of consumers.

Pearce, who has been a pioneer in identifying and developing talent, places a great deal of emphasis on the role of people managers.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>