

New appointments at Foord Asset Management

Foord Asset Management has appointed Wim Murray, Alexa Pearce, Heather McCulloch and Nick Curtin to its team.

Wim Murray has joined the Foord investment team as an equity analyst focusing on South African companies listed in the retail and food producer sectors.

Alexa Pearce has joined Foord as a performance and attribution analyst focusing on performance measurement calculations, reporting and managing the performance composite programme.

Heather McCulloch joins Mike Soekoe's business development team as the regional head of retail business in the Western Cape.

Nick Curtin has joined Foord in an institutional client services capacity and will take the lead role in coordinating the client report-back programme.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>