

CRM company acquired by Relate technologies

Relate Technologies has acquired customer relationship management (CRM) company Global Vision's resources and client base for its Microsoft Dynamics CRM solutions. The acquisition allows it and its customers to take advantage of the increased integration between the latest versions of the CRM, document management and collaboration offerings, in particular using CRM 2011 and SharePoint 2010 product suites. CRM 2011 launched in South Africa in March 2011.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>