

Youth talk show returns

Keeping It Real, South Africa's popular youth talk show, is back with a new look, a new edge and a new host on Tuesday, 2 December 2008, at 4.30pm on SABC2. Each week the new host of Keeping It Real, 22-year-old Noluthando Meje (Nolly), will tackle the hard-hitting as well as the lighter issues affecting everyday lives of young people growing up in South Africa. The show aims to go beyond merely discussing problems by giving the youth a platform to express and empower themselves.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>