

Tokara shines at WM 10-Year-Old Wine Awards

Tokara has received recognition at the recent WM 10-Year-Old Wine Awards, making it the fourth consecutive year the family-owned Stellenbosch wine estate excels in the competition.

Four of its wines broke the venerable 90 point barrier. Three of the four wines were white wines. The white wines were the Reserve Collection, the Zondernaam, and the Director's Reserve White, all achieving 91 points. The red wine was the Director's Reserve Red with 90 points. Tokara was overall ranked as the second-highest performer of the competition.

The competition, held annually under the Winemag.co.za banner to showcase age-worthy South African wines, attracted 74 entries from the 2010 vintage.
