9 Jun 2023

This World Gin Day on 10 June, Bombay Sapphire invites you to stir creativity, you can make your own delicious gin cocktails at home or you could head over to Tang Waterfront in Cape Town for a unique senses-stirred experience with the brand.

Made from 10 sustainability-sourced hand-selected botanicals from exotic locations around the world, Bombay Sapphire makes for the perfect creative canvas for cocktails that awaken all the senses.

From the satisfying crunch as you slice through fresh citrus fruits and the gentle pouring of the liquid, to the sound of the ice swirling against the glass, the preparation of your favourite cocktail creates a symphony of sounds and aromas.

Selecting vibrant fruits, herbs, and spices to flavour and garnish your cocktail will catch the eye and create an enticing color palette. Think of the pink blush of grapefruit, the bright yellow of lemons, or the deep green of mint, to create the picture-perfect cocktail. Lastly, savor the versatile, smooth, and complex taste of the Bombay Sapphire liquid in your cocktail creation.

So, what are you waiting for? Let the fun be-gin! Get your creative juices flowing with these Bombay Sapphire recipes or you can head over to Tang Waterfront to celebrate World Gin Day.

Recipes:

Pink Grapefruit and Rosemary Gin & Tonic twist

Fresh pink grapefruit and rosemary subtly infuse their flavour in a twist on a classic G&T. Bright, fresh, bursting with taste and perfect for the summer.

Ingredients

- 50 ml Bombay Sapphire gin
- 5100 ml Chilled premium tonic water
- 52 Pink grapefruit wedges
- 52 Fresh rosemary sprigs

Method

- Add a sprig of rosemary, then gently squeeze a wedge of fresh pink grapefruit into your balloon glass before dropping it in
- Add Bombay Sapphire and swirl so the flavours subtly infuse
- Fill the glass with ice cubes and top with chilled tonic water
- Gently stir to combine and finish the drink with a wedge of pink grapefruit and sprig of rosemary before serving.

Rosé Spritz
