

Car magazine, Caxton launch new multi-function automotive website

Together with Caxton, automotive magazine Car has launched its new multifunction online platform, Carmag.co.za. With the additional resources from Caxton Automotive, the new website will consist of a range of offerings to its users.

FEATURED ARTICLES

It's official: Geely buys 50 percent of Smart from Daimler
By: Ryan Bubea

VIDEOS

Watch foolish Ford Ranger driver cause head-on crash
Find out more >>

Are you looking for a NEW car?

Search your car in our inventory and request a quote on the vehicle of your choosing.

New Cars - 2019

☐ Reset form

Search

These include professional editorial content produced by the magazine's expert journalists and vehicle specialists, generic new car module offerings, special deals on new and used vehicles and dealership demo modules. The multifunction automotive platform will also highlight new cars, test them and rate them.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>