

Ramsoomar to lead Nissan sales and operations

Nissan South Africa has appointed Leslie Ramsoomar as its new head of sales and operations: SAF. Given Ramsoomar's vast experience in sales and operations at Renault, he is to work across the Renault-Nissan Alliance.

Ramsoomar started his career in sales and aftersales at a Nissan dealership after which he moved on to Renault. During his career, he participated in the executive development programme at the University of the Witwatersrand as well as the Nissan senior management development programme at the University of Stellenbosch.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>