

Travelstart takes flight at new office space

Travelstart recently unveiled its newly decorated offices at its new space at Longkloof Studios in the Cape Town CBD. Inhouse director Phillip Wyatt and senior designer ChrisMari Loubser took inspiration from Nancy Meyers' comedy film The Intern for the office's interior design as was suggested by Travelstart's CEO.

The office has some distinct Travelstart elements like a light box modelled on the Travelstart logo as well as a two-metre long model aeroplane that hangs from the ceiling.
