

G30 Forum on banking conduct and culture

The South African Reserve Bank and The Group of Thirty (G30), in association with Barclays Africa, co-hosted a high-level banking forum on 18 February 2016. The forum discussed the importance of conduct and cultural reform in the African banking sector. Nearly 100 financial policy makers, practitioners and other stakeholders participated in the forum, which centred around the findings and recommendations from the recent G30 report, 'Banking Conduct and Culture: A Call for Sustained and Comprehensive Reform'.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>