

Discovery Channel renews Don't Stop Wondering Award

Discovery Channel, in partnership with the Jozi Film Festival, has opted to return its 'Discovery Channel Don't Stop Wondering Award' for 2018 after receiving over 200 entries for the award in 2017.

The award calls for two to five-minute documentary filmmakers in Africa that demonstrate/celebrate unique African stories and that capture Discovery Channel's essence of creating curiosity.

The winner of this year's award will receive a Canon XF-405 video camera with Singer Photographic camera accessories.

Submissions for the award open on 19 February 2018 and close on 28 May 2018.
