

Cartoon Network and Boomerang's "Entertooning" Afternoon

Kick-starting the many year-end festivities Cartoon Network and Boomerang Channel, together with Oracle Airtime Sales and HDI Youth, provided an afternoon where adults showed that they're kids at heart! The big kids oooh'd and aaaah'd when Johnny Bravo and the Powerpuff Girls appeared, while Dexter impressed with his strange experiments in the lab! Not to be outdone - Bloo, Scooby Doo, Yogi Bear and Fred Flinstone visited from Boomerang and gained many new friends. Ghoulish snacks and smoking potions were an adventurous palate's delight. A giant playground of informal and fun networking was enjoyed by all.
