

Depicting SA's transformation through soccer

Filming has commenced on a new TV series, Total Soccer, which will consist of eight one-hour documentary films per year depicting South Africa's transformation - both on and off the field - in the run up to 2010. Sponsored by Total South Africa, the series is produced by international film and TV production company Little Bird. The first films will be screened on e.tv on Sunday, 24 December 2006, at 6pm and Sunday, 31 December, at 6pm.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>