

Samsung brands the airports

The Letter Corporation (TLC), a division of Altmedia, has launched a range of advertising executions for Samsung's cellular and digital products at SA's international airports including two stand sights at Cape Town and a wrap-around execution at the exit of the Joburg international arrivals terminal. They have also erected several visually high-tech exhibition type stands to display the latest range of Samsung products.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>