

4th Africa International Film Festival open for entries

The 4th Africa International Film Festival will take place from 9-16 November 2014 in Tinapa, Calabar, Cross River State, Nigeria. Entries are now open to films produced after 1 January 2013.

AFRICA
INTERNATIONAL
FILM FESTIVAL

The Festival seeks to give expression to African cinema by recognising and rewarding excellence in the industry with monetary award prizes ranging from $3000-$6000

Categories for entry include Feature, Short, Documentary and Animation, and preference will be given to films which are yet to be screened globally or in Africa.

If you wish to have your film considered, include a DVD copy of the film along with a synopsis and/or press kit and an entry submission form.

Entry deadlines

- Short films (40 minutes or less) - 13 June 2014
- Feature length films (more than 40 minutes) - 30 June 2014

Ensure you have read through our rules and regulations before submitting a film for our consideration.
