

DIFF opens with 'Hard to Get'

The 35th Durban International Film Festival (DIFF) will open with 'Hard to Get' from first-time feature director Zee Ntuli and produced by Junaid Ahmed and Helena Spring. The DIFF takes place from 17 - 27 July 2014. It includes more than 200 theatrical screenings and a full seminar and workshop programme, as well as the Wavescape Film Festival, the Wild Talk Africa Film Festival, and various industry initiatives, including the 7th Talent Campus Durban (in cooperation with the Berlin Talent Campus) and the 5th Durban FilmMart co-production market (in partnership with the Durban Film Office). For more information go to www.durbanfilmfestival.co.za

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>