

Kyalami Motorsport Festival set for November

The Kyalami Motorsport Festival will take place at the Kyalami Grand Prix Circuit on Saturday, 4 November 2017.

The day promises an action-packed schedule including the Sasol GTC championship duel between Michael Stephen and Gennaro Bonafede, the Engen Volkswagen Cup, and the Investchem Formula 1600, among others.

Perhaps the biggest excitement of the day will come courtesy of the racing supercar Ferraris, Lamborghinis, Porsches and all of the G&H Transport Extreme Supercars.

Fans can also look forward to the return of the rolling thunder V8 Supercars and Mastercars and there will also be national championship Hankook Formula Vee as well as regional 111 Saloon, AutoBarn SuperHatch and Sub-10 Motorcycle races.
