

WATCH: #WomensMonth: Increased focus on mental health in education and the workplace

This Women's Month, Mitcheline Williams and Claire Voges, both Student Wellness Managers at IIE Rosebank College, discuss the increased focus on mental health in both the education environment and the workplace, as well as the impact that Covid-19 has had on general wellness, and the particularly challenging times women are facing

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>