28 May 2009

- Do you have a success story to tell?
- Do you have a marketing strategy that's worked?
- Are you a top SMME?
- Are you an entrepreneur of note?
- Is your CEO or MD South Africa's Top Businessman of the Year?

The countdown has begun for entries into this year's National Business Awards which take place in July. There are eighteen categories to enter in this year's Awards and to win one for you or your client all you have to do is see if you qualify by completing the nomination form at www.nationalbusinessawards.co.za. But hurry - there is just one week to go. Shortlisted entries will go through for judging on 8 July. Sitting on this year's prestigious Judging Panel are Shirley Zinn (HR Director-Nedbank), Suzanne Ravenall (CEO - Beyond Outsourcing), Mpho Makwana (Group Executive - EDCON Group) and Quentin Wray (Editor - Business Report).

Topco Media is staging this event in association with SA's Top 500 Companies and SA's Top Performing Companies, their leading publications in the corporate world. The Awards will recognise and honour top performers in both business and Government and will be a networking opportunity not to be missed. VIP attendees include Musa Zwane (CEO - Sasol), Johnathan Louw (CEO - Adcock Ingram) and Richard Friedland (CEO - Netcare Limited).

The evening will acknowledge, congratulate and celebrate South Africa's business success stories at all levels across the board from leading corporates to small individual companies.

Enter now! For further information or to book a table to attend this event call Laura Barker on 021 791 7100.
