Job description

Now Hiring: Freelance Design Visionaries for Unique Project-Based Work.

Are you a freelance designer whose heart beats to the rhythm of graphic design? Do you dream in code, creating the most visually stunning websites, and craft Instagram reels that captivate and inspire? If that's you, keep reading—we have something special in store. We're on the lookout for extraordinary creatives deeply inspired by the rich heritage of Africa. Those who see the vibrant cultures, intricate patterns, and profound stories of Africa not just as inspiration but as a canvas for their work. Whether it's interior design that speaks the language of colour and texture or product design that incorporates elements of African art, we want to hear from you. Our projects are a playground for creativity, focusing on lifestyle concepts that blend traditional craftsmanship with the clean, sharp lines of modern design. We celebrate the past and the new, creating a vibrant dance of contrasts that breathes new life into heritage. This isn't just another job—it's a call to adventure and a creative challenge unlike any other. Join us on a per-project basis and let's make magic together, one project at a time. Are you ready to join our team and transform the ordinary into the extraordinary? Apply now and let's create something unforgettable together.
