Looking for a sales or retail assistant job but don't have enough experience?

Maybe you currently work in retail or sales and are fed up with a lack of progression and earning minimum wage?

If you are bored of having a job and want a career, then this is the opportunity for you!

Our Nelspruit-based client has entry-level sales assistant roles suitable for those with and without experience. Full product training and one-to-one sales coaching are provided from day one and throughout. This role is perfect for those who are looking to gain skills and experience within the sales, marketing, and customer service industries or job seekers looking for a more challenging career with opportunities to progress.

You must have:

- Self-motivation
- Basic communication skills
- A personality
- Confidence
- A willingness to progress
- Enthusiasm

The role:

- Provide customers with genuine sales advice and customer service
- Be able to commit full-time hours, full days a week, Monday - Saturday
- Represent clients in face-to-face campaigns
- National and international travel opportunities
- Excellent added incentives
- Recognition for hard work
