

Forbes Woman Africa* out now

The February/March 2015 issue of Forbes Woman Africa, a bimonthly pan-African magazine for the smart, successful and savvy African woman, is now on newsstands. This month features Miss World 2014 - Rolene Strauss.

The magazine profiles powerful, wealthy, influential and inspirational African women in business, politics and society. The magazine delivers sharp analysis and engaging stories of real women who speak from the heart; real women who have failed with dignity and taken success with grace. The voice is Africa, but the message is global.
