

Local graphic design world class

The South African Graphic Design Council, think, has been accepted as a full member of Icograda, the world body for professional graphic design and visual communication. As a member organisation of Icograda, think will provide its members a link to international trends and standards and further enhances its members' credibility as current and educated to top industry norms.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>