

Combine photojournal theory with practice

Registration closes end of November 2006 for the Market Photo Workshop's year-long course in photojournalism and documentary photography, which begins in January 2007 at the Workshop's premises in Newtown, Johannesburg. Supported by Getty Images, it will consist of core modules in photojournalism, techniques, visual culture and writing, as well as training in special fields like business English, graphic design, film and editing, and curating. Bursaries are available. For enquiries, phone +27 (0)11 834 1444.
