

PR company supports women in IT initiative

HMC Seswa Corporate Communications, an IT-focused public relations company based in Fourways, recently announced its partnership with Women in IT (WIIT), a bursary and mentorship programme, to provide PR assistance in the form of media liaison and formation of communication strategies in the development and mentorship of women in the IT industry. For more info, go to www.womeninit.co.za.

For more, visit: <https://www.bizcommunity.com>