

Angus Robinson releases October's mobile report

Angus Robinson of Native has released the October Mobile Report that reveals Samsung's new curved screen smartphone, Apple's new iPads and Pick n Pay's mobile loyalty app. The first African country makes a 4G roaming call, MTN dominates in Nigerian mobile market and BBM is finally available for all African smartphones.

In the social media space, while Facebook is planning to build its own town, Starbucks has figured out how to take your money over Twitter. It also offers a new section with the latest LinkedIn statistics for Africa. It is available on Google Drive <http://bit.ly/1dXkF0x>, Dropbox <http://bit.ly/1dxUrP> and SlideShare <http://slidesha.re/171BPHW>
