

Co-production South Africa, Nigeria film to premiere in Burkina Faso

Local film Comatose has been selected to premiere at the Panafrican Film and Television Festival of Ouagadougou (Fespaco) in Burkina Faso on 26 February 2019.

The film, which was produced by Mickey Dube, is the first co-production between South Africa and Nigeria. It is a dramatic afro-futurism feature film which explores an African perspective on the euthanasia debate.

A total of 20 films are selected with 16 countries for Fespaco.
